

G.O.O.D. for Girls, Inc. Program Volunteer Application

G.O.O.D. for Girls, Inc. (GfG) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit community-based asset/leadership development and mentoring organization for girls ages 9 – 18. We provide consistent one-to-one and group mentoring to help develop and strengthen positive internal assets, including positive self-esteem/values; social competencies; positive identity; empowerment; constructive use of time; commitment to learning; boundaries and expectations and support. The girls meet the first and third Saturdays of each month for focused interactive learning activities, trips, special events or community service that support their growth. Additional meetings may also be scheduled depending on the activity and/or project. We have openings for Program Committee as well as Activities Facilitator for various activity sessions for girls and/or adults

Why Should You Apply?

- Opportunities to share your talent and expertise
- Opportunities to create and facilitate activities that you are passionate about and will benefit young girls, mentors, parents and other GfG stakeholders
- Opportunities to collaborate with a team of likeminded, wonderful people who are making a difference in the lives of girls
- Opportunity to do on-going, meaningful work

Please select from below the position you feel will be a best fit for you and our organization.

Activities Facilitator: Your presentation can be a one-time session, a series, or as part of a special event

The responsibilities of this job include:

- to successfully complete an interview for your area of expertise to be presented
- to creatively plan for and widen awareness of concepts for the topic to be presented
- to use a range of appropriate educational learning methods and techniques including technology tools
- to stimulate creativity of young girls and/or adults (mentor, parent workshops)
- to encourage meaningful dialogue among the participants regarding the area of focus
- to facilitate recognition of cultural background, values, and behavior
- to promote active tolerance and interaction with people from other cultures
- to plan and apply a range of participatory methods of evaluation
- to follow all GfG guidelines and understand that any violation will result in termination of the assignment.
- I give permission for images of my person to be used by GfG or a 3rd party while participating in the organization. These images may be used in promotions, marketing materials, websites, and in general benefit of the organization.

If you are interested, please contact The Team at program@goodforgirlsinc.org.
